The Canvas Gallery presents an exhibit of new artwork

Pastiche, An Exhibition of Cacophony

June 26- July 31, 2003

Artists:

Bob Carroll, Michel McMahon, Tim Murley, Kathryn St. Clair, Patrick Smith, Carsten Stehr, Toru Sugita

Pastiche is a group art show playing within the dialectic of harmony and disharmony. It is the spirit of The Canvas – bold brilliant art that is mixed and matched, juxtaposed to create an enchanting environment. Pastiche is a cacophony of art working together

Pastiche brings together:

Bob Carroll's haunting and exotic photographic portraits

Michel McMahon's tile-work animals

Tim Murley's humorous and bold pop painting

Catherine StClair's hypnotic and lulling abstract canvases

Patrick Smith's desolate personas and common object monotypes

Carsten Stehr's asiatic vertical abstract canvases

Toru Sugita's resolute architectural lines

Opening reception and entertainment on Thursday June 26, 2003 6pm-12am.

with DJ Marty (Wind-Up SF) and Kerry Tucker (Wind-Up SF).

About the Canvas:

We are a new-concept art, entertainment, and performance space located at the busy intersection of 9th and Lincoln in the Inner Sunset. The Canvas Art Gallery features progressive and affordable art with a focus on emerging West Coast artists. Our gallery showcases traditional painting mediums in addition to sculpture, photography, video, and conceptual art. Our 4,000 square feet of floor space and 30 foot ceilings, matched with our vision, have created one of the most beautiful and progressive environments for the arts and entertainment on the West Coast.

The Canvas is open Sunday-Thursday from 8am-12pm and Friday and Saturday from 8am-2am. The Gallery is staffed from Wednesday to Sunday from 1pm to 9pm, and other days/times by appointment only. We are located at 1200 9th Ave, across from Golden Gate Park and the Botanical Gardens.
